

Th today Sat.

Dear Harriet:-

This is going to be short as I don't feel much like writing so please let me off this time. Thot I'd tell you of the business so you would know, for if you ^{should} compare this with those I have received from you. I think this "epistle" will be of fair length.

If I keep this gait up much longer I'll have quite a letter here before I know it and I don't want to bother you too much for, your time is limited isn't it? I mean for letter reading and writing.

If it doesn't rain - and chances are that it won't as a fellow needs it badly. You'll get this Wednesday, and if you can spare the time just tell me what you are going to do Saturday - how you are going to get out. I mean and may I, or can I come - get you to go to the ball game?

I think you will have some fun as it ought to Little girl! If you don't write me a letter; "letter" mind you, not a two page note, I'm afraid you'll regret it. I will and — I need it this week and am cooking for it. Write me it if you can heaps — I'm foolish — of course you can — but I want that letter do you hear? Perhaps you think it ridiculous for me to write this way but I can't help it. just.

Tell me what you really do think and I'll see what I can do. There was a mistake made some how when I was put together — left out the sense perhaps — don't you think so? But a letter — send it!

for a while to watch that manned arm - get that = Really I "hadn't ought" to and that is a mighty poor excuse for a letter but it's a good "expression" of myself this evening and for that - the rest of the week perhaps.

Yours

April

You can I believe, get me an answer by Friday and I'll go up that evening for it. If you can spare the time make it more than a note, I need a letter from you - how badly you'll probably not know for - See you! A. (over)
