Dear Little Girl:-

You are a whole lot better to me than I dream, perhaps sometimes in the future I will be able to say and do things in a way that will make for less unnecesary but at present I am and am a bungler.

I am very sincerely sorry that what I said in my letter made you regret having asked me to do something for you - but - will I tell you why I did not want to go but again I changed my mind for a good many reasons - let's let that part of my history go and now let me to "be good"
in the future.

Last Thursday night
the S.S. outfit gave a hay ride to Greenwich - a big great affair and I went with Miss Brown, the young lady that is visiting at my sister's. I did not have a very good time for some reason and I rather think that I fixed myself so that it fit & won't ask me to their "dinner" again.

Is it not so?

The M.C. gave some sort of a "Boiled" la-noche but I was unable to attend. That about finishes the news here for the last two weeks.

I have not told you before that I wished you here but now that the time for that visit is drawing near I can say a "few" on the subject can't I? If you had only told me that you were going to stay
a few weeks instead of just two I would not need so long but it makes me restless. Oh I can't say what I want to - come home and maybe I can tell you then and do

hurry up.

Tell me what evening
I may come up and I will be there and we will go for a
"fifteen minute" drive.

Tell me in your letter
if any thing has happened during your visit to cause any regrets or doubts - If you know to what I refer, don't 'dodge' the question.

As the time draws round I get 'nervous' and will be 'till I see and talk to you. Adieu

Your impatient
Aunt
