Sat. eve.

Today I received
the recent letter
from you, ^{advising} ~~advising~~
but I'm not going
to answer it tonight
as I want something
to write to you
about tomorrow
night and I'm sure I can get
the inspiration
from that letter.

What I want
to say is this —
in the first place —
expect your father
to make this

his headquarters
while my son
stays is if he
invokes. The primary reason however for
this short posting
letter is to avoid
let him arrive
here on Tuesday
so I can't meet
him on that day.

I may as well
tell you why
now as to wait
till the last of the month "Bill"
and I are entered
in the "Farmers
Race" at the fair
and it comes
off on the 16".

Really now I do
not expect to get any thing as I'm
to slow at hitting
but its possible
that a fellow
might win one
of the four prizes
— $10 — 20 — 10 & 10
for 1" 2" — 3" & 4"

pieces and as
it costs nothing
to try why don't you persuade
to get into it —
I'm afraid of
course but there
are others.

This is a miserable
old day — yesterday
the same — windy

and dusty. Oh say!

Born told me
that the wheat
went about 20 bu
and the oats 30.
How does that compare
with Oke?

Now little girl I
have to take this to Keahi and it is getting late so I'll
finish this note by
telling you the only thing worth while -
that I love you with
my whole being &
will keep on loving
you that way all
my life. I'll prove
to you before it is all over that I care as much as you.
Adieu ~~Adieu~~ nice
with heaps of "can" A.B.V!
