

8.00 P. M.

Becki - 8-20-06.

Now little girl you talk with you. It seems good to be able to sit down and write to you - our way of talking at present - but the time's whooping it up to when we'll not have to write but can talk - and we won't be 100 miles apart either.

First thing I'll tell you what we are doing - haying of course, and we got along nicely but Holy Moses it's a good thing you were not when you could hear me for I'm not talked very much most of the day.
I'll have to explain.

You see the hay - alfalfa - was cut last Friday and of course it is dry and full of fine dust and fuzz that somehow finds a fellow with me and when I get dirty - next my hike - guess I'm thin skinned - why I get cranky and cross. I saw Tom & Will smiling at one another but they had nothing to say - when I got to the house I found a tub of water and felt better. The dence of it is in here some two months of this business and all in on the stack all the time.
I'm a bit tired

but a fellow must expect that but a night's sleep will fix one up O.K.

Don't worry about me - I wouldn't get sick if I tried, fact I'm ^{too} ~~too~~ healthy for my own good I'd believe.

Tomorrow it will be better for I growled to Dad - told him he'd better go out and hunt another man to put on the stack and he dug one up in about two hours.

Every thing here is fine - we've had it dry but corn is made any how so what's the difference.

Mile wanted to use the phone this noon and of course he took it down to hear if anyone

was using it and 18 & 8. was Calhoun. He was over home working and she was at her home. It was so interesting that Bill forgot to hurry up and he got very awful grim on his face. He said that the talk was great and gave us a few samples.

They have no idea
when they are going to live. I told me that but I did not believe him. He told me that as I suppose it must be so. And that a great note?

Brown has ruled 40 acres of Timmons
and suppose he is satisfied. Frank Smith & Fred Kershaw looked me
a lot about the place

when Mr. Mrs. I said they wondered who had ruled it etc. They did
"get off" some funny thing and I guess they are right - what do you think about it? Have you any idea who expects to win this?

Say sister - here's something that strikes me funny, tell me how you view it.

Last week - first part - Mrs Timmons went up to Mrs Emmerts, to tell her that she was going to have some company
Thursday for dinner
and would like to "look at Len dishes" Mrs E.
showed her to her and Mrs T. said, "Oh they are chipped like ruin.
I'll not take them." This is rank gossip, sweetest but it is so funny I had to tell you and then I'm afraid I like to gossip.

Now dearie I'll have to quit as I'm tired and sleepy.

Goodbye I wish that you were where I could get my arm round you if only for 60 seconds.

I wouldn't try to talk to you, just for you are way. Darns mind, time is trotting 'long and will soon be a giller for a good many 60's!

Winey - I've missed a perhaps tho' you don't find it that way lot - not ~~long~~ waiting to you each evening - seems as tho' I've forgotten or lost something. I'm going to try
- no matter who's for to write each night or day. Do you want it that way?

Good night and take good care of yourself
Yours ABW

P.S. Tell my one - "that's interested" perhaps I'm now of the age - "hello" for me. It's especially for me.

Miss Eleanor Woodworth.

Cashion.
