Heidi - 8-6-06

Today my dear girl, I received two letters but still I'm not feeling very good over it.

I got your letter directed to Heidi when I took the envelope up this A.M. and was very sorry to learn that you were not. I'm feeling well - was mighty glad to see that P.S. stating that you were well again.

Those annoying headaches are not my frequent visitors if yours are they?

Your letter means this P.M. off to P.H. was a complete disappointment - for one thing you fueled a comply with a simple

little request of mine
that I fully expected to be done and then it
didn't amount to a thing
and was awfully old

My dear Eleanor - if you are writing more
letters than you think you ought to it's your privilege to "chop it
down" till you satisfy
but ~~I'll~~ I'll

write of times than you - One top of a nice time out and
feeling good as you ^{say} you did I fail to see why you won't write
over you any.

Now my good in
this' enclosing one

will go to somewhere
else.

We had another rain
today and a big one but just the sort to make corn go in whooping -
chances are good for another tonight.

I took the show of
"Bill" and turned him
and my fistular man
in the yard - hear them
unrooping around now.
"Bill" is picking up
some but is getting sunburned - that's not morrying me any as he will get good and
black again this winter.

I named the colt
the Friar - ought to be appropriate I
think - he is noble

fat and has not been hurt yet.

Arrie and Mrs Fisher
were to go to town today but don't know whether they have or not. I looked Ada down
nearly a week ago & Oddie is over at Grand's helping Roy
do something or other
— play I suppose.

Drew is scarce here
as I'm not here & Keeli for two or three nights — so will have to let that go.

Is Flo going to stay
some time in Guthrie
and is Pauline still in Cashier & did she
finally tear herself
away?

Of course I think it
best to milk our own
cows - this thing of doing all the work and then splitting the milk checks in the middle doesn't appear to yours truly.

~~Am not worrying a~~ bit "Mr Ladi" about
the future - when we are finally settled it's the start - the first 6 mo
or so that troubles
me and I know it
shouldn't - still a ~~yellow has to have~~ something to growch
about.

Today I cut a few
muds - trilled some brush out of the way -
had a lot of trees and grapevines - built a
pile or two of fence
and a few other things.

and now I feel pretty good.

Tomorrow I suppose,
is my off day & so a
letter but see in town.
I guess. Did you have a good time Sunday?
— hope so — rather a
good folder & nice book.
Don't say against it for something to write so well have to put

Sweetheart — I'd

rather not receive any letters than be like I got today — so think a bit and if you don't feel like writing put it off till you do if it's a month.

Have my letters any of them — are you —

strains! Don't have been. Don't know?

see what a lot will be ready out to me tonight.

With all my love
A. B. C.

This is my last letter
I hope so
I don't want to leave
you any longer
