

1 Euchi - 4-9-06.

Dear Girl:-

Good things like bad, come all at once and with to-day the finest we have had - came your letter of Thursday as nice an one as you have written to me and now - as I can't hitch Bill up
and drive up and see you - I'll spend the rest of the eve in "talking" to you.

Ho fine here now.

Saturday it rained
nearly all day &

Sunday was windy -
I went over to Aris to dinner by the way - and to night with a fine moon "on tap"
makes me homesick
- I want to get hold of you for awhile - but I'll have to wait awhile. Going to stop awhile and
read your letter again.
Do you know I
just found your Sat.
morning P.S. to that letter. it must have stuck in the letter the first time I read it and so

this time forgive!

Don't get huffy' at some thing I'm going to say about a

remark you made in that P.S. —

it's about what you told Flo in regard to your reason for not going to the dance — If it is too hard for you to tell her that you won't dance — and if it is causing any comment because you do not go to their dances

and ~~not~~ you have to hunt for "elives" why as far as my opinion in regard to it is concerned make it
the easiest way out and go
— but — just let me know as soon as possible and I'll fix things to suit all hands —

It makes me
tired that a girl has to dodge round
and run at "causes"

when a simple statement of ^{their} ~~your~~ views on any thing would make future excuses unnecessary. If you really do wish to go to them why go — but for heavens sake tell me what you intend to do

and then learn
at once out of your letter.

Really I would not be surprised to get a letter telling me that my views were foolish and that you had gone to me — just couldn't put the folks off

etc. — This sounds harsh to you but every time you mention dance it makes me mad
— since Jan. 1"
and you should do — know why.

I've spelled this letter I suppose
but answer this.
Your letter came Cashier at 6 P. M.

one day and arrive
at Wichita 10 or 11 P.M. next.

Glad your father thinks Bill is some sort of a horse. I'm something along that line to tell you.

We will be able to live all right and keep him but here is the rub.

I hope that we will be the owners of some 70 pigs
and if we can keep them on our own money and

feed them our own
corn we should sell them for some 5-00⁰⁰
which taking some 280⁰⁰ out that we would have to pay for the place would leave us a nice little sum of money.

- Now perhaps you can see why it might be best to sell him - if we don't we certainly will have to cut out some of the "items" on our list. Its up to you to decide that and I await your decision anxiously. We both like a good horse — and have it in Bill — he has cost me no money and is thoroughly broken as you know.

All together I think there are more reasons why we should keep than sell him
but it's hardly good policy still if 200⁰⁰
is our offered sum
he is a gem.
Talk about your
"doin' things" for Lee.

Oh yes! what was
it you were sewing?

I went out Sat. and bought three cows -
our cows missed you
- so you see I'm figuring on this - a bit myself & am beginning to get things together - when you get down & figure it out and look at the time past it doesn't seem so long - if only we were together
time would sail round & flying - wouldn't it.

All right: will talk about the date afterwards and fix it out to suit - yourself.

I don't know why you should wonder at my loving you
it seems more as tho' you should wonder how you happened to love me. Any how its true both ways so that's all right.

I received your letters from you last week & wrote four
- an answer to each one of yours - we is got it down to a system now - I'm like you

in regard to letters - I'll write ^{to you} just as often as you do to me

Don't let Mrs D's plans worry you - she can't make any for this home while I possess what little sense I'm now got.
I'm tired now &
will "saw off" for this time with heaps of love.

A.B.W.

P.S. Am going to Town tomorrow to see the rights. Oh I say! I've a heap - of news to tell you but don't like to put it in a letter - what shall I do - keep it?

A.

I've not told you one half the things I intended to but I can't write now - my beginning has spoiled it all.
